Albert Kranich was a painter, poet and philosopher born in 1198 in Pont Vanis, Kovir. Considered one of the most extravagant philosophers of his time, he was the first to propose the theory of the omniverse in his book, Beyond the Conjunction of the Spheres.

From the age of six he began to manifest his great intellect, coming to debate complex issues with the masters of the different institutes and other scholars. At the age of 14 he moved to Oxenfurt to study at the Academy.

Upon graduation he discovered his passion for painting, turning it into a profession which he carried out with mastery, throughout his adult life until his old age. He lived always abroad,
